BATTLE OF THE BOOKS 2020

Grades 4-6

Registration begins December 16

Schedule for Roscommon

Kick Off
January 11th at 10am

Students and coaches meet at the Roscommon Area District Library to receive books and design team t-shirts.

Author Visit
February 4th at 9:00 am

Meet the author of one of our BoB Books! They'll be coming to the Roscommon Middle School for a special visit just for BoB participants. We'll reveal the identity of this top secret visitor at the kickoff meeting!

Mock Battle
February 22th at 10:00am

Roscommon teams meet for a practice battle at the Roscommon Area District Library. Be ready to compete with all 10 books!

Local Elimination Battle
March 7th at 1:00pm

Roscommon teams meet at the Roscommon Elementary School to battle for the chance to compete in the finals! The top three teams will advance to the finals against the other libraries' teams.

Grand Championship Battle
March 14th at 1pm

The top three teams from each library meet at Houghton Lake High School Auditorium for the 2020 Championship! All participants, their families, friends, and the general public are welcome! Participants must arrive by 12:30 pm

How Battle of the Books Works

Students compete in teams of three to five lead by an adult coach. They read a variety of books chosen by librarians, and then answer questions about the books in a competition against other local teams. The top three teams from each library go on to compete against the teams from their "rival" libraries. The team with the most correct answers becomes the 2020 Battle of the Books Champion! Complete rules are available at your library.
